TERMS OF SALE

NOTE: "NASCA" REFERS TO NASCA-KARP AUCTIONS, INC.

1. A 10% buyers charge will be added to each lot purchased by any bidder. This charge will be based on the amount of the final bid and the charge will be added to each invoiced lot.
2. All bids are per lot as numbered in this catalog.
3. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale.
4. All material in this catalog is guaranteed to be genuine unless otherwise described.
5. All successful bidders shall be billed for postage, handling and insurance charges. Shipments to overseas buyers are made at their sole risk.
6. We reserve the right to reject any bid from any bidder when we deem a bid not made in good faith. NASCA does not assume liability of any kind arising out of the failure to execute any bid due to clerical error or from any other cause.
7. No "buy" or "unlimited" bids will be accepted. We will act as agents for all mail bidders in the sale. Mail bids will be opened at the next interval over the second highest bid except where the intrinsic or regular market worth of the item dictates an opening at its fair market value. United States currency will not, in conformity with law, be opened at less than the indicated face value.
8. NO BIDS WILL BE ACCEPTED OTHER THAN THOSE RECEIVED IN WHOLE DOLLAR AMOUNTS. THIS INCLUDES AUTHORIZATION TO INCREASE BIDS BY A CERTAIN PERCENTAGE. THOSE INCREMENTS WILL BE REDUCED TO THE LOWEST DOLLAR AMOUNT.
9. Check your bid sheet carefully. We can not assume any responsibility for errors made in the amount bid or lot numbers listed on your sheets. In case of a tie bid, floor bids will take preference over mail bids.
10. It is necessary for all minors wishing to bid to present written parental permission prior to sale.
11. The payment terms for our sales are strictly cash and payment is to be made immediately upon receipt of invoice. No lot(s) may be taken away at any time unless the purchase price thereof has been paid in full. Buyers will be charged a late charge of 2% per month on the total purchase price (including buyers and other charges) if payment is not received by NASCA within 10 business days of the mailing of the invoice. Established customers who have credit with us shall be permitted, after seeking permission in writing, to have such items held for 30 days without charge after the closing date of the sale. However, no merchandise will be delivered in advance of payment.
12. Title does not pass on any item purchased until payment in full is received for all items. NASCA expressly reserves the right to await the clearance of any check tendered before making delivery.
13. In the event that a collection agency or an attorney is required to collect outstanding accounts, all agency and court costs, witness and attorney fees and all other costs and charges of any and every kind whatsoever incurred by NASCA in collecting the funds due shall be borne by the defendant in the event that judgement is given against him, her or them. In the event of a suit, the signer of a NASCA bid sheet or participant in the auction concedes the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York or the United States in the City of New York as NASCA alone shall elect and expressly waives any right of trial in any other place or jurisdiction.
14. No lots may be returned by Floor bidders except on the ground of non-authenticity.
15. Mail bidders may return lots for reasons of authenticity or improper description by requesting written permission to do so within 5 days after delivery of merchandise. LATE REMITTANCE FOR PURCHASES, HOWEVER, IS CAUSE TO NEGATE THIS PRIVILEGE. NO RETURNS WILL BE PERMITTED FOR ANY REASON AFTER SETTLEMENT IS MADE WITH OUR CONSIGNORS.
16. New York State sales taxes shall be levied on all New York residents in New York City (if delivered there) at the rate applicable therein and if delivered to the purchaser's residence, at the rate applicable there. Dealers and other persons not resident in New York are reminded that under regulations effective 1 Dec., 1982, sales tax must be collected from any non-New York dealer unless the proper forms have been filled in by the said dealers and filed with the New York authorities.
17. NASCA reserves the right in public auction sales to reopen the bidding under the following circumstances:
  - 1) NASCA has failed to execute correctly a mail bid.
  - 2) A party purchasing the lot on the floor has done so in error.
  - 3) Where a protest is made after the hammer has fallen but before the bidding has commenced on the next lot.
  - 4) Where the auctioneer has determined that he has overlooked a party still bidding on the lot but before the calling of the next lot.With these exceptions, lots will not be permitted to be reopened after they have been hammered down, unless the party awarded the lot will permit the auctioneer to reopen the same. The decision of the auctioneer on these or other points shall be final and binding.
18. The placing of a bid in this auction sale shall constitute full acceptance of the foregoing terms of sale.

CANADA*WAR OF 1812 DISCOVERY NOTE!

Issued for the purchase of supplies and the payment of troops during the War of 1812 to 1814. Bearing interest at the rate of one farthing per day, they were redeemable in cash or bills of exchange in London, at the option of the Commander of the Forces. They were printed with a counterfoil at left to be cut when the note was issued. Upon redemption, the note would be matched up against the stub to check for counterfeits (this explains why the left edge of the note appears to be missing). According to Charleton, "ALL VERY RARE".

NICARAGUA

EXTRAORDINARY WILLIAM WALKER MILITARY
SCRIP NOTES AMERICAN GOLD RUSH ITEM

The William Walker issues of the Republic of Nicaragua formed one of the most interesting numismatic issues in the world. While the story of Walker's activities is reasonably well-known, some repetition of the key events in his life would be appropriate here. Walker was born in Tennessee on May 8, 1824, and by training and avocation was a doctor, then became a lawyer, was admitted to the New Orleans Bar, and finally he became the editor and proprietor of the New Orleans Daily Crescent (1848). The California Gold Rush lured him thither in 1850 (he passed via Nicaragua on his way thence) but he soon found that his talents were not those necessary to make a fortune in the gold fields. He therefore sought new lines of endeavor. As a violent pro-slavery advocate, Walker looked upon the neighboring Latin-American states as appropriate targets for southern expansionist and "Manifest Destiny" efforts. Taking advantage of the fact that the provinces of Sonora and Baja California were practically severed from Mexico geographically and that the latter was run by one of the local warlords, who was not on the best of terms with Mexico City, Walker invaded those provinces at the head of a small army in 1853. He captured the Conservative government headquarters at LaPaz, proclaimed Baja, California an independent republic and prepared to take steps to have this territory annexed by the United States. Unfortunately for him, the Mexicans postponed their own squabbles long enough to appeal for help from the Federal Government and Walker was barely able to make his escape over the border to San Diego, with the Mexicans hot on his heels. Only his not inconsiderable military skills prevented him from being captured and executed by the enraged natives. Acquitted for his unwanted violation of American neutrality by a sympathetic California jury, Walker's thoughts now turned to Nicaragua. The Republic of Nicaragua was one of the five successor states that had arisen out of the disintegration of the Central Confederation and as if the various wars they were fighting with their neighbors were not bad enough, the Conservatives and the Liberals were carrying on a Civil War which had already lasted for sixteen years. Since each was evenly matched with the other, the Conservatives were able to defy their opponents in the safety of the city of Granada, while the Liberals sought refuge in the rival capital city at Leon. Commodore Vanderbilt, who had come a long way from a pedlar of produce from Staten Island to the owner of some ferry boats and now ocean vessels, found the chaos in Nicaragua unattractive as it greatly hindered the activities and profitability of the Accessory Transit Company, which transported would-be California settlers from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast of Nicaragua. With some back-handed support from the Commodore and from the various Southern fire eaters, Walker landed in Nicaragua, and ultimately had at his disposal a force of 750 Americans. With these as a nucleus, he conquered the Conservative citadel at Granada, while nominally acting as an ally of the Liberals at Leon. He then proceeded to outmaneuver the Liberals and by 1856 had actually been inaugurated President of Nicaragua. Unfortunately, he fell out with Commodore Vanderbilt over control of the Transit Company and the Commodore, in retaliation, cut off his money and reinforcements. Local resentment against foreign rule and the proposal to turn Nicaragua to a slave territory soon strained Walker's treasury to the breaking point. Unable to pay cash, Walker was compelled to emit special military scrip notes as an interim measure until taxes could be collected. In the meantime, dissention in Nicaragua was augmented by a combined attack launched by Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras, and Costa Rica, who, while they agreed upon nothing else, were determined to eject the Yankee intruders from what they considered to be their territory. By early 1857 Walker was on the ropes and had to flee for his life, surrendering to Commodore Charles Henry Davis of the U.S. Navy and returning with him to the United States. Walker organized a new expedition which set sail from Mobile but was intercepted by Commodore Hiram Halding of the U.S. Navy at Grey Town and Walker was once again returned to the United States where he was again acquitted by a friendly jury of the violations of the U.S. Neutrality Act. Ultimately, Walker's luck ran out when he made a serious mistake and attacked Honduras. While he was successful in evading the British and American fleets posted in Nicaragua to prevent his further incursions there, the British consul in New Orleans had gotten wind of his objectives and had provided the Honduran authorities with some timely intelligence of them. As a result, Walker's force was overwhelmed, he was captured and executed by them on September 12, 1860. NASCA is pleased to be able to offer this excessively rare and early note, the first Nicaraguan item intimately connected with the California Gold Rush.

AUSTRIAN STATES

KHEVENHULLER

Very Rare 1771 Taler - 200 Minted!

- 708 1771 Taler. Cr.2. Dav.1189 ($2,250 in 1982!) Unc. (Photo) ($1,650-Up)
Johann Josef, 1742-76 (Prince, 1763-76). Military bust wearing several orders/ very ornate coat of arms. One of three coins of Khevenhuller, with the others - 1761 Taler and gold Ducat - being quite rare also. Faint planchet adjustments show through on the cheek and curls above ear. In view of this, and the generally high quality of the few examples of the coinage (rarely below EF, often AU-Unc.), we hesitate to class this as "Choice Unc." Around the bust are some of the most incredible purple, turquoise and orange hues we've ever seen on a coin.

VIENNA

- 709 1781. Taler. Cr.1. Dav. 1267 ($1,500 in 1982). Unc. (Photo) ($1,000-Up)
Christoph Anton, bishop, 1757-1803. Ecclesiastical bust/ crowned, mantled arms surrounded by religious emblems. Prooflike surfaces. Light planchet adjustments, bottom reverse edge. Mintage only 2000. Evidently it was intended that many actually circulate. This and a 1781 gold Ducat are the only coinage of the Viennese bishopric (the Bishop was also a Prince, and struck coins under dual privilege).

AZORES

Please note that a 10% buyers charge will be added to each lot purchased on all purchases.

Lacks only the 1869 and the 1970 from being a complete date set for nearly a century of Half Pence issues, and neither of those is rare; indeed, as a date, the included 1871 is far scarcer than either of them. As with the Farthing set, these coins range in grade from Good to Unc., and again a 1953 Proof is included as well as more than one major variety for several of the years, such as the 1860 which is represented by both the beaded and the toothed border varieties. Sold As Is - No Returns.

VERY RARE GOLD PATTERN

- 989 1776. Pattern 1/3 Guinea, struck in Gold. Montagu 552, Douglas Morris 78. Unc. (Photo) ($1,500-Up)
 George III, bust/ lion on crown. Executed by R. Yeo. The attractive reverse design was adopted for shillings in 1825. It is commonplace to strike patterns for gold coins in metals other than gold. Krause lists a smattering of patterns struck in gold, with prices starting at $12,000, but those before 1820 are simply priced "Rare". With English dealers bidding in greatly depressed Sterling, this lot is a great temporary opportunity for a farsighted American collector.

CATHOLIC EMANCIPATION!

- 1021 1829. Beautiful Gilt-silver and Gold Snuff Box Presented by the Catholic Association to One of Its Treasurers Upon the Successful Completion of the Association's Mission. (Photo) ($700-Up)

A lovely example of the goldsmith's art, the box itself measures 103x70mm and is 30mm high, wrought in elaborate but tasteful scroll and leaf pattern on the top border and the sides, a gold tablet inlaid into the top and another into the bottom and hand engraved with the presentation inscriptions. The top inscription reads "Pursuant to a Resolution of the Finance Committee of the Catholic Association of Ireland inscribed on the other side hereof, This Box was Presented to David Lynch, Esqr. as one of the Treasurers of the Memorable Body", while that on the tablet on the bottom reads "CORN EXCHANGE, DUBLIN, DECr. 28th 1829, Chris'r. Fitz Simon, Esqr, in the Chair. Resolved, that three SNUFF BOXES with suitable Inscriptions be Presented to David Lynch, Nicholas Mahon, & Corn's McLoughlin, Esq'rs, the Treasurers of the late Catholic Association, as a Testimony of respect, gratitude, and affection for the disinterested and laborious discharge of the honorable trust reposed in them by the Catholics of Ireland. SIGNED Chris'r Fitz Simon, Chairman/ Daniel O'Connell/ Maurice O'Connell/ Stephen Coppinger/ James Sugrue/ Edward Dwyer Sec't'y." The box is triple-hallmarked inside both top and bottom. Following the Revolt of 1798 under Wolfe Tone (in which two of your cataloguer's ancestors served as Lieutenants) and that of 1804 under Bobby Emmet, suppression of the Catholics became even more rigorous in Ireland. Daniel O'Connell, who was born in Kerry in 1775, arose during the next few years as a major Irish orator and agitator, and was instrumental in the change, in 1812, of the former Catholic Committee into the Catholic Board. By 1813, he was a major figure among the Catholic leaders. In 1823, he and Richard Shiel formed the Catholic Association to work specifically for Catholic emancipation. Membership soon numbered in the hundreds of thousands, and branches were established abroad, especially in the United States. In 1828, the Association threw all the political weight it could muster into campaigns against the Government candidates in contested elections, starting with that of Fitz Gerald in County Clare (against whom O'Connell ran, winning by a 2 to 1 margin). The Nicholas Mahon who was also presented with a snuff box at the same time as David Lynch, was one of his major supporters. Pressure eventually built to a level too strong for the British to resist, and, in March of 1829, King George granted emancipation (though not in the best possible form and terms). Apparently the Catholic Association, which had been organized expressly to work for this goal, and which had not merely seen it realized but had placed O'Connell in Parliament, felt its primary task was done and dissolved itself before the end of the year. This snuffbox is a very significant reminder of the struggle and its success, and is, of course, unique as a presentation piece. It really belongs in a museum in Ireland!
